THANK YOU

The family of our dear, beloved husband and father, Ron, would like to thank the community for all their support, condolences, food, cards and kindness during this very, very difficult time. A special thanks to Craig, Renae, Monica, Elaine and all the people who helped make Ron's service a special memory of him at this very sad time. He's in our hearts and will be forever missed.

-Margaret, Travis, Marty, Linde and families.
Thank You From Robson Valley Community Services. On behalf of all the staff and leadership team at Robson Valley Community Services we would like to extend our gratitude and appreciation to all of our community partners who were able to attend out open house BBQ, as well as those who could not attend for your past, present and future support and collaborative efforts serving our valued community members in the Robson Valley. We would like to acknowledge and thank MLA Shirley Bond for attending the event and her supportive address as we open a new chapter in our journey, Eric Gauthier for his opening address acknowledging the traditional First Nations territory we reside on, and group of volunteers from Live Different for their hard work feeding everyone. Lastly, we would like to thank the McBride Community Forest, board, Gene Runtz, Joseph Rich and Tovi Thiel for their support in putting this event on.

A performer, songwriter, singer, and instrumentalist, Jenie Thai combines her love of the traditional piano blues, sixties rhythm and blues, and great American songwriters to produce a unique charm as a roots and blues musician on the national and international scene. <http://www.jeniethai.ca/>

Personal thoughts/opinions

- if we put things in gear the right way we can and will be successful
- we can virtually accomplish anything as a group but nothing as separate individuals
