RVEA UPDATE

Robson Valley Entertainment Association Update - On February 5th at 6:00p.m., an AGM was convened to bring new life to the association. The previous committee had been reduced to a single member. Five people showed up for the meeting, and all have agreed to act as directors. The new executive is: Tony Rykes - chairperson, Wanda Holmes - Vice Chairperson and Steve Brabant as Treasurer. Rosemary Hurby will continue as Secretary/administrator. The directors are Ross Partington and Al Fredricks. A new AGM will be called within the next month, to allow others to join the association and to express concerns or suggestions. As was mentioned in a previous news release, the current issues with both the radio and the TV are being dealt with and should be resolved within the next few weeks.
