THANK YOU

11th ANNUAL ROBSON VALLEY Backcountry Horsemen POKER RIDE a great success! The Robson Valley Chapter of BCHBC hosted another very successful poker ride on Saturday, September 16th with 40 riders and 20 others participating. The event was held at the new McIntosh Equestrian Campground and Recreation Site on Belle Mountain. Attendees were from Valemount, Jasper, Dunster, McBride, Penny and Prince George. Everyone was very pleased and excited about the new campground venue and the adjacent trail network recently completed by the Robson Valley Chapter. Many who attended, camped with their horses at the campground which offers 15 sites including 22 corrals. Food was donated by McBride TGP and McBride AG Foods and a delicious meal of chili and corn was prepared by Tanya Philips and Kelly Harding. All riders received draw prizes donated by our wonderful and generous community residents and businesses! Poker hand cash prizes went to Arlene Haugen 1st ($400), Shelly Cousineau 2nd ($200), and Nicole Hamill 3rd ($100). The very creative and interesting Booby prize for the worst poker hand was won by Lily Alexander. The Robson Valley Chapter would like to express our sincere gratitude and appreciation to the volunteers, local residents and businesses who generously donated to this fundraiser. A special thank you to Leah, Wyatt, and Amber for coming providing the first aid van and qualified attendants. The 50/50 draw was won by Linsey Shalla! Thank you once again to this incredible community support!
