THANK YOU

The Royal Canadian Legion Branch #75 (McBride) would like to thank the community for the great support on wreath and poppy campaign and for the support at the parade and ceremony at the Cenotaph in Steve Kolida Park. Special acknowledgment to MLA Shirley Bond, MP Bob Zimmer, Regional District, C.U.P.E., and McBride Fire Department and to others who purchased and laid wreaths. Proceeds from the poppy fund support veterans and their families. Thanks to all those individuals who contributed to our Remembrance Day ceremony including Bob Balcean (school and mobile sound system), Dave Hruby (parade marshal), Keith Berg (horn playing), Cassidy Brawn (for singing), and Rev. Andriy Antypov (scripture reading and prayer). Special thanks to the three members from the 1 Service Battalion out of Edmonton for travelling all this way to participate in the ceremony. Thanks to the Beanery 2 Bistro, members Donna and Andy, for preparing the great roast beef luncheon for the Legion. Thanks to all the helpers and staff who assisted with the meal. Thanks to Integris Insurance (printing the pamphlets), the Little McBride Paper and the Goat Newspaper (advertising). The Royal Canadian Legion Branch #75 (McBride) looks forward to continuing our contribution to the community in a variety of ways.

The McBride Mustangs Boy's Basketball Team would like to thank the McBride Community Forest for their generous donation of a logging truck load of firewood. We would also like to thank Ben Alspaugh, Bud Froese, Renee Alspaugh, all the parents who helped cut up and split the wood, as well as all of our customers who purchased from us. All proceeds go towards travel and tournament costs. Thank you!

McBride Community Health Services would like to acknowledge and thank the Valley Piecemakers for their donation, both now and over the years of the beautiful baby quilts. These "Warm Hugs" are gifted to newborns in the Robson Valley and are greatly appreciated.
