THANK YOU

Thank you to the person/s who found and returned M. Jacksons wallet and phone!

ATTENTION IN THE PITS!!!

Anybody that has rooms available for Friday, June 19th, 2026, please message me A.S.A.P.! Hotel, Motel, Air B&B, cabins, campsites, extra rooms or suites that are vacant etc.! BCDrag IT Challenge competitors will be arriving Friday afternoon/evening and everything is filling up fast. I have drawn up a short form with names and contact information and will forward it to the organizers for distribution. I have left a clipboard at the end of the first checkout counter at TGP for convenience, they are open from 8A.M.-8P.M., 7 days a week. I was originally going to send it out on Saturday the 7. But will postpone it until Saturday the 14 for those who are just finding this in this publication. They are expecting a much larger turn out this year based on early registrations. While I have your attention, if any individual(s), business(es) or corporation(s) would like to assist in helping to cover the cost of the public portapotties please contact me A.S.A.P., last year 5 individuals stepped up to cover the cost last minute as we were not aware that we were responsible for covering the costs. Everything that we provide as far as set up and operation is strictly non-profit based and as such relies on volunteers and donations so any help is greatly appreciated. Anyone that provides services or equipment and materials is given recognition. This event brings much needed entertainment and outside revenue so supporting the operations will ensure we can continue to bring these events here more often. Last year so many generous people stepped up and donated their time and equipment and we received nothing but the highest praise and recognition for the way the event turned out. So far everyone I contacted that was involved last year has said they are on board again so that's great news. There are a few minor changes this year, all for the better of course, the viewing area will be located much closer to and extend further down the track as well. The Hospital Auxillary will be running the gate and receive a portion of the donation from the organizers. The event being held on a Saturday should draw more spectators, especially from out of town as they have Sunday to travel home. Other changes will be announced as things are confirmed. The Organizers and participants said this was the most welcoming community they have encountered and begged to come back and so here we are, Round Number 2!!! Thank you for coming out and supporting this awesome event and hopefully you will attend this year and bring more friends and family to take it all in !!! Public Meeting T.B.A. In the near future!

VALENTINE'S CARD RUN

We are kicking off the 2nd Annual Downtown McBride Valentine's Crawl with a new twist, first we run then we crawl. Starting Friday, February 6th and running until Friday, February 13th at noon you can "run" around downtown McBride & collect Valentine's cards from participating businesses - collect cards to form the following: A three card run - suit does not matter - i.e. 3-4-5, 8-9-10, Q-K-A. Three of a kind - suit does not matter - ie 3-3-3, J-J-J. Find the Valentine's Joker - instant winner. Rules: If you get either the three card run or three of a kind your name will be entered into the corresponding prize packages, to be announced. If you collect a minimum of 3 cards but do not get any of the qualifying entries you can still return your cards for a treat! Find the joker, there's only one throughout the town, and instantly win a prize, to be announced! Running is optional. One card per person per business (max 9 cards) as there are a limited number of cards, no purchase necessary, bring your cards into Mountain View Boutique by Friday, February 13th by 12 pm!
