THANK YOU

I am truly grateful to live in such a beautiful place. Although the scenery is gorgeous, it is the people of the Robson Valley that make it spectacular! On Friday, March 27th, a BBQ and Bake Sale was held to help raise funds for my Service Dog. The snow held off, the sun shone, and the wind howled... but you came out to help, to support, to show your kindness and generosity. A special thanks to Bobby and Lori Hurry for coming to us with the idea and offer to sponsor the BBQ with food from and the space at TGP; to Craig Arnold and Birgit Stutz for taking on the lion's share of the planning and work; to my McBride E-Free Church family for the condiments, manning the event and baking, as well as other community members who donated baking, Bobby Ann and Nelson Hicks, Barb McCoy of the Country Girl's Kitchen, Charisa and Halle Reimer, Irene and Robertta Froese, and Rachele Morisset, for the wonderful breads, cinnamon rolls, cookies and squares; to AG Foods for the donation of bags of chips; to Uncle Mark's for the donation of bags of Mr. Roth's Famous popcorn; to grill master Andrea Arnold and condiment king Barry Bedell for keeping the food coming, and to everyone who braved the wind to buy a burger, dog or baked goods. And last but not least, thank you to Scott and Susan Glines of the Little McBride Paper. $2,090 was raised, putting me just over halfway towards the total needed. I live in an amazing place, but its residents make it magnificent! -Kelli Lynn Parker
