PACIFIC MOUNTAIN JUSTICE MINISTRY - McBride Anglican United Church Justice Workshop July 26, 2026, 12:30 - 4:00pm. We are called by Jesus to be people of justice and mercy, to walk a path of peace and to work for the thriving of God's kingdom in our communities and in our lives. We answer the call, our hearts and minds are open, our spirits are committed, and our hands are busy. And yet, we find ourselves asking: "Are we doing enough?" "Does what I am doing matter?" "How can I ever make enough difference in the face of overwhelming issues?" Join us and Rev. Kendra Mitchell-Foster, Regional Minister: Justice, and University of Northern British Columbia (UNBC) Campus Minister for an afternoon of collective visioning, faithful planning, connecting and community organizing to nourish justice work in our community. Using appreciative inquiry and with an intersectional focus, we will map out our justice work, uncover synergies and points of inspiration, and develop paths forward with renewed energy and purpose. All justice work is connected, each effort and initiative matters creating a ripple effect into our communities, our regions and the wider world.
