IN LOVING MEMORY

Rebecca Dolores Frazier
 December 16th, 1954 - August 3rd, 2025

It's been almost one year since we lost you, and there isn't a day that goes by that we don't miss you. Life has been difficult without your guidance, smile, humour, voice and the comfort of having you with us. But we know your love never left us. We feel you in the quiet moments, in the strength you give us and in the memories we hold so close. Thank you for being such an amazing mom and grandmother. Forever loved. Forever missed. From your devoted and loving granddaughter and your son.

-Nolan and Masey

BIRTHDAY WISHES
JULY 29-AUGUST 4

Heather Simpson, Levi Smith, Brianna Kent, Cecile Kraby, Donna Perkins, Levi Littlechild, Matt Barnes, Shawn Molendyk, Gordon Molendyk, Gianna Kent, and to any we have missed, Happy Birthday.

COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

SECOND ANNUAL SHOW AND SHINE / FAMILY DAY

On behalf of the community of McBride and the participants of the Second Annual McBride Show and Shine held July 18th 2026, I would like to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to the following persons, organizations and businesses for their generous support! Without their guidance, support and cooperation this event would not have been possible! Thank you all so much!

The Corporation of the Village of McBride: Guidance in the application process for the use of Kolida Park and the Pavilion and guidance in the application process for street closures for the hosting of this event.

McBride Community Forest Corporation: For offering to cover the cost of the required insurance coverage and going above and beyond by also providing locally purchased free give-a-way packages for the children and cash prizes for the children's events.

The Village of McBride maintenance crew for providing the street closure barricades .

Tabatha Reis for offering and staffing all the children's games which she generously donated for use!

To Art, Gina and Fran from Main Street Pizza, Mountainview Boutique and Welcome Home for offering to put on the children's colouring contest. Gina for once again putting together all of the awesome prize packages!!!

Bobby and Lori Hurry and staff c/o McBride TGP: and their suppliers for donating all the required burgers, condiments and beverages for the by donation BBQ.

Peitro Caputo for offering the use of his large BBQ grille.

Cynthia Kelly for generously donating the use of the Mobile P.A. System at the show and shine and the drive through town with live announcements.

The McBride Men's Shed for providing security and providing all the staff for the BBQ, awesome job guys!

Home Hardware McBride for providing the corn hole toss board, to be used for future community events as well!

Tracey Hoffman – ICBC P/R department: Providing “Impaired driving simulation glasses soccer ball challenge” providing all of the children's handouts, contest giveaways and permanently giving me the street racing awareness sign! We will be continuing to work together through out the year on various road safety campaigns!

Rachel Rykes for not only riding around with the P.A.Truck, but assisting with registration forms, children's draws and more! Great job Rachel!

Stan Burke for driving the P.A. Truck for Cynthia.

Ben Hunter for directing the parking and numbering of the vehicles!

Forever Printing and Signs for publishing updates, schedules and posters.

The Rocky Mountain Goat for publishing updates, schedules and posters.

Darcy McKay for matting, mounting and framing the two silent auction prints with proceeds going to The Little Munchkins Day Care Centre and repairs to the DU Print for the silents auction towards the McBride R.A.C.E.R.S. Group.

All the people that brought their rides out to share with everyone to view them, especially the 3 fellows that travelled all the way from Prince George and the fellow from Valemount who made the trek!

Everyone that came out to take part in all the activities and draws, it was great to see so many happy smiling faces relaxing and taking it all in!

If I have missed anyone else, I apologize and will include you in a separate post listing all the sponsors that donated towards the prizes and give-a-aways.
